INSURANCE INFORMATION

Consistent with the provisions of section 701(i) of the Dog Law, no payment shall be made for any claim which has already been paid by the claimant’s insurance carrier. In addition, the claimant must certify to the Department that he has not received payment for any damages claimed under this section from any person.

(3 P.S. 459-701 (i)) The Dog Law is the payer of the last resort. The claimant shall make application to his insurance company. Where payment is received from the insurance company or the owner of the offending dog, no payment shall be due from the Department. If payment is received from an insurance company or offending dog owner after payment has been made from the Department, the claimant shall reimburse the Department in the amount of that payment.

A claim denial from your insurance carrier will be required if you carry insurance but this is not a covered loss under your policy.
The Claimant shall provide the Department with the following information.
