8) Attach a copy of the new fee simple deed (see below for options in meeting deed of easement requirements).

Deed Conveying Change in Ownership

1. A deed conveying an interest in the restricted land shall set forth the language of the easement restrictions verbatim.

There are two approaches to meeting the easement language provisions:

- a. The new fee simple deed would contain verbatim all the terms and conditions set forth in Items 1 through 13, as contained in the recorded Deed of Easement executed for the subject property.

-OR-

- b. A legal recital may be included in the new fee simple deed stating that the property is subject to an agricultural conservation easement as recorded in book and page at the Recorder of Deeds. The recital needs to state that a copy of the original Deed of Easement is attached to the new fee simple deed package for recording at the Recorder of Deeds. The Deed of Easement document shall include the legal description for the eased acreage on the property.
