

APPLICATION FOR BRAND RECORD

The Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture shall authorize and record the adoption and exclusive use of unique identification marks, numbers or devices, including distinctive branding marks, tattoos, microchips and other forms of identification that are affixed upon domestic animals, and shall maintain a registry of such forms of identification.

A person desiring to adopt a form of identification shall submit this application form and a recording fee of $25 to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Health. The department then shall have the power to examine, approve, accept, or reject an application to record a brand, tattoo or other form of identification.

The use of a brand for the branding of domestic animals, unless recorded, shall be unlawful.
